

You're Invited...

Help us say farewell to the old
Port Washington
Power Plant and welcome the new Port Washington
Generating Station!

Sunday, June 27, 2004
11 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Free tours of:

- New generating station construction site
- Existing power plant
- The Herbert C. Jackson steamer ship

Don't miss this chance for an up close look at the past and future of electric generation in Port Washington.

For your safety and security, we must put some restrictions on the tours. Please wear sturdy shoes. Open-toed shoes, high heels and sandals are not allowed. Children will be permitted on the steamer ship but must be accompanied by an adult. Children younger than 12 will not be permitted in the power plant or the construction area. Handicap accessibility is limited. In the event of severe weather or a heightened alert from the Department of Homeland Security, the event will be cancelled without a make-up date.

Please join us!

we energies
today, tomorrow, together.
